Venue Synopsis

Built in 1936, this theater retains its historic charm and offers audiences an intimate experience for every performance. An elegant space for meetings and events, the Montgomery Theater also hosts a variety of cultural and performing arts organizations, events, as well as corporate functions. The beautiful courtyard outside the main lobby of the theater makes for a perfect registration or cocktail reception area for any event.

The Montgomery Theater is located across the street from the Convention Center, making transportation and parking easy with a Light Rail stop near the theater entrance and several pay parking lots within walking distance.
