UTILITY SOLUTIONS FOR EVERY EVENT

SELECTING THE RIGHT PARTNER

An integral part of an event's success can be attributed to the expertise and efficiency of the temporary utility contractor selected. The utility contractor will not only impact the exhibitor experience, but most importantly the show organizer's reputation in providing its exhibitors with the most qualified vendors.

In your quest to partner with an organization that offers the best value in pricing, while enhancing the customer service experience, no other contractor is as focused or qualified to deliver as Edlen. By utilizing a contractor that specializes exclusively in providing temporary electrical and plumbing services, you and your exhibitors will experience the reason show organizers choose to contract directly with Edlen for their temporary utility needs.

Edlen's methodology of doing business is unique in that the only service we provide is temporary utilities to the trade show, convention and special event industry. Unlike general service contractors who provide and manage multiple services, Edlen is a specialist. Our only focus is to excel in meeting our client's utility needs.

Interesting Edlen Facts

As an independent contractor, Edlen works with over 80 different general service contractors each year.

Edlen services over 245 convention properties nationwide including 40 prime convention centers with up to 2.6 million square feet of exhibit space.

Edlen has serviced 63 of the nation's top 200 trade shows, working with the nation's largest general service contractors.

Edlen is the largest independent temporary utility contractor to the trade show, convention and special event industry servicing over 4000 events annually
